Peacefield Equine Sanctuary, Inc.

Peacefield Equine Sanctuary, Inc., founded in 2008, received its 501c3 status from the IRS in 2009 and is now recognized as a public charity.

Visit us on the web at <http://www.peacefield-equinesanctuary.org/>

Find us on Facebook as well under “Peacefield Equine Sanctuary” and click “Like” to follow us

Our mission:

Peacefield Equine Sanctuary exists to care for horses that need both medical attention and/or behavioral training, with the goal of making them good equine citizens. Their care will be tracked throughout their entire lives in order to ensure their permanent safety. The Sanctuary also exists to educate the public about equine care and rehabilitation, and about the politics of the abolishment of horse slaughter.

Peacefield recently received a grant from the Elations Co. in the amount of $10,000, which allowed us to expand our pastures and provide more shelters for the horses we are presently helping and for future rescues. We are in the midst now of conducting a fundraiser that will allow us to cover the basic operating expenses for the rescue, that is, feed, vet, and farrier bills for the 2011 year. We would like to start reaching out instead of waiting for the horses to come to us by visiting the auctions, particularly where it is known that slaughter buyers attend. But, we cannot do this without funds.

Support our efforts by purchasing Dark Horse Chocolates! To see what is available, visit the website at <http://www.harborsweets.com/Dark-Horse-Chocolates/departments/11/>. In order for the Horse Rescue to get credit for the sale, though, do not order through the website. Rather, contact Elizabeth Lorenzen through her email at liblore@gmail.com with your request, and she will process your order. Half of the purchase price for the chocolate will then go to Peacefield! Dark Horse Chocolates' non-profit program is a very generous one.

Thank you in advance for your support!

Elizabeth Lorenzen
